Although there are those who will say differently, we are more convinced than ever that Truckee is definitely on the up trend in progress and development. We cite as the most recent indication of this contention, the purchase and planned subdivision of 320 acres of excellent home site land adjacent to the town on the west. It is not hard to visualize the possibilities arising from this project. Situated as it is on both sides of the transcontinental highway and on the Lake Tahoe highway and yet right in Truckee, known from coast to coast, the location is hard to beat. It remains only for a concerted effort on the part of each one of us to show the world at large and Nevada county in particular, that Truckee is up on its toes and going places.

We have had our first real taste of winter for this year. While the skies have cleared and all is well once more, those two or three stormy days should serve to remind us that we are face to face with another long winter. Then the thought arises as to what we are going to do about it. One thing is quite certain, we are not going to forstall those future storms, the deep snow and the sub-zero temperatures, so we must devise some way of utilizing them. There is only one solution—Winter Sports. All around us, the papers say, there are clubs and communities going ahead with winter sports plans, seeking to divert winter sports enthusiasts to their areas, realizing the unlimited possibilities of this popular form of diversion. Truckee has always been "tops" for winter sports and can continue to hold this enviable position if we here in Truckee are anxious enough that it does so. It is right up to each one of us to determine whether we want to have winter sports continued permanently or discontinued indefinitely.

Have you checked over your store and dwelling this week to see if there are any hidden fire hazards? If not, let us suggest that you do so today. Perhaps you are unaware of a common menace which might be right now threatening your home or business. A few minutes time and a bit of effort may save your many dollars or even lives later on. That plugged chimney, a neglected pile of old papers, an unsafe electric appliance or any number of obvious hazards may lurk in your place and it's up to you to see that they are eliminated at once. Your fire department stands ready and willing to do everything it can to help you after a fire has started, but in return they ask that you cooperate with them this week—Fire Prevention Week—to make your home or store safe and their job lighter.

This shifting fall wind sure keeps Truckee's famous collection of debris on the move. One time you will see it cluttering the sidewalks, streets and doorways in the west section of town and then the unstable wind shifts and there you see the same old pile of papers, gum wrappers and what have you down in the eastern part of town. It keeps things from becoming monotonous, but it surely doesn't solve the problem. Maybe by next year someone will have found a way.

FOUR GENERATIONS WILL ASSEMBLE IN BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Monday, October 11, Mrs. Clara B. Nelson of Truckee, pioneer resident of this section of the state and her great-granddaughter, little Miss Lorna Thompson will have the unusual distinction of celebrating their 74th and second birthdays simultaneously at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Thompson of Loyalton, granddaughter and mother of the honorees.

C. E. Nelson of Loyalton, son of Mrs. Nelson will complete the four generations to be present at the dinner party to be attended by relatives on Sunday.

On Monday, Mrs. Thompson has invited small friends of her daughter to enjoy the afternoon, cake with the proper number of candles and attractive decorations will center the tables at the dual celebration.

FIRE ALARM CAUSED BY ACCIDENT IS EXCITEMENT CAUSE

Mild excitement was created in town this morning when one of the painters engaged in decorating the interior of the Telephone building automatically tripped the control switch on the fire alarm. The new truck was out and on the job before the siren's wail had stopped.

Play Ground At High School To Be Built Soon

Surfaced Court at School To Provide Much Needed Recreation

Work was scheduled to start this week on the new surfaced playground at the Meadow Lake Union high school grounds.

The present rocky, rough terrain was believed not only inadequate but unsafe for the recreational purposes and the members of the board of trustees, meeting this week, ordered the work done.

William Fairley, head of the Pacific States Construction company, engaged in surfacing the highway along Donner Lake will have charge of the high school work which will cost $485. This price will include covering the court, 33 by 135 feet with a four-inch covering of asphalt mix and installation of necessary uprights for basketball, tennis or other games to be played.

TELEPHONE BUILDING GETTING REPAIR FROM RECENT FIRE

Contractors are busy this week installing a new front and sidewalk at the Telephone building. Painters are engaged in redecorating the interior of the structure which was recently damaged by fire.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED AT JOHNSON HOME HERE WEDNESDAY

The fire truck, manned by Chief Tom Doley and Assistant Chief Tony Pace was called to the rear of the Martin Johnson home on the hill Wednesday to extinguish a fire in a pile of rubbish which had been burning for two days. It was thought the incipient blaze was started by the careless use of a torch used to take apart some old car parts kept there. No damage was caused, but firemen put the blaze out to prevent its spreading to neighboring houses.

Proud Hunter Disappointed In Decision on Buck

Dominic Catalino, 26, Roseville, was proud of his deer—the first he had ever killed—but he didn't like the way it was received by officers of the local forest service station and Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith.

Catalino was hunting in the Sardinia Valley country when he bagged his buck. He loaded the animal across his car and drove proudly through Truckee to the ranger station where he sought to have his tags validated as the law requires. And there is where the trouble started.

When it came to a required description of the animal, the hunter was asked the number of points on each side of the head. "There's one on the right and one on the left," he is quoted as answering.

Ranger H. I. Snider decided to have a look at the deer, and sure enough there it was—a spike buck.

Catalino was taken before Justice Smith, explained his guilt as ignorance and the court sentenced him to ten days in jail and imposed a fine of $25. Both penalties were suspended, but the tags were surrendered to the court and the hunter promised to be more familiar with the law next time he goes hunting.

FIRST STORM OF SEASON HITS IN TRUCKEE REGION

Snow, Wind, Rain Prevail In Truckee-Tahoe Area On Week End

The Truckee-Lake Tahoe area was given its first real visit from the approaching winter last Saturday and Sunday when snow fell to cover the mountain tops throughout the region and a cold sleet and rain drenched the lower areas.

Thermometers in the Truckee area dropped down to the 28 degree mark, causing automobile owners to look to a new supply of anti-freeze and home owners to prepare for filling the coal bins and oil tanks.

Several minor car accidents were attributed to the season's first storm, but no one was reported seriously injured.

Following the somewhat heavy downpour and wind storm, the skies cleared and ideal fall weather again prevailed.

ELECTRICAL WORKER KILLED ON PROJECT AT LAKE TAHOE

Jake Martin, an employe of the Sierra Pacific Power company, was killed late Tuesday when he came in contact with a live wire near Cave Rock, Lake Tahoe.

Martin, whose home was believed to have been at Yerington, Nevada, was curling up the wire. Death was almost instantaneous.

GOOD HUNTING IS REPORTED AFTER STORM LAST WEEK

Good hunting is reported by H. E. Maggard in the vicinity of Lake Independence since the light snow fall on Saturday night. The deer are easily tracked in the snow which is from three to five inches deep.

Fire Prevention Week Observed In Town By Firemen

Urge Cooperation Of All In Cleaning Up Fire Hazards

In observance of Fire Prevention Week, members of the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department are asking the cooperation of local residents in a campaign to eliminate all unnecessary hazards.

They are calling special attention to the removal of old papers, trash and other debris which is often allowed to accumulate in homes and business places. They also point out the fact that many fires are caused by unsafe wiring and urge everyone to have this phase of their dwelling examined. Flues which have not been cleaned recently also offer a bad hazard and property owners are being asked to have this attended to in the campaign to prevent fires.

Assistant Chief A. Pace and Frank Gaiennie, fire commissioner, are in charge of the campaign, assisted by Chief N. F. Doley and other members of the department.

O. E. S. PAST OFFICERS ARE HONORED AT RECEPTION AFFAIR

Truckee Chapter, No. 116 of the Order of Eastern Star, honored the past matrons and past patrons at the annual party held Tuesday evening.

Games were the diversion of the evening and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Louise Wilkie, Mrs. Harley, Mrs. Hannah Harvey and H. I. Snider.

The new banquet room was dedicated on the occasion and was beautifully decorated in Halloween colors.

Each past officer's place at the banquet table was marked on white satin ribbon with the year that each served as worthy matron or worthy patron. The chapter presented gifts to the past officers.

Following serving of delicious refreshments, Senior Past Matron Elizabeth Wilkie and Past Matron Hannah Stewart addressed the members with well-chosen remarks. The several committees were congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

NEVADA COUNTIES ARE BEING OPENED TO DEER HUNTERS

NEW RESIDENTIAL SUBDIVISION TO BE OPENED LOCALLY

R. Joseph Purchases Land West of Truckee for Home Sites

DEVELOPMENT IS SEEN

Progress Under Way Already To Develop New Territory

Negotiations for the purchase of 320 acres of land adjoining Truckee on the west and extending beyond the Tahoe-Truckee Wye, were completed this week when Richard Joseph, well known Truckee businessman, bought the tract from the Union Ice company of San Francisco.

Joseph has announced plans to subdivide the tract during the coming months and place it on the market for home and business sites in the spring.

The property, according to observers, offers ideal home sites, being located on both sides of Highway No. 40 and also on both sides of the Lake Tahoe highway, including the Wye.

Several local developments are already planned for the new residential subdivision, Joseph said, but none are ready to announce at this time.

"I propose to have the property subdivided in the near future and will offer choice building lots in the early spring," Joseph declared. "For many years I have studied the possibilities of this location and believe it is ideal for the development of Truckee."

Already steps have been taken to have lights and electric power installed in the district and ample water is available, the new owner said.

Much of the proposed new residential tract is covered with trees, offering a natural park. While much of the land is on comparatively level ground, the drainage will be good, it was pointed out by Joseph.

"Truckee is bound to grow and the only logical way for it to develop is along the highway," the new owner said. "What better location is there for this certain growth?"

The cost of the property was not revealed.

ABANDONED WRECK OF STOLEN AUTO FOUND AT SUMMIT

State Patrolman Charles E. McKeen was called to a point near Donner Summit Sunday night to investigate the finding of a wrecked car which had evidently been abandoned and pushed over the grade just east of the summit.

The investigation revealed that the car had been stolen in Reno a few hours before it was found. It was registered to Florence Robertson of Cupertino, near Oakland.

Close scrutiny was made to find a possible occupant of the car, but all evidence pointed to abandonment and destruction of the car.

The wreck was returned to Truckee to await disposition.

AGED MAN KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY TRAIN AT GOLD RUN

An inquest in the death of Edward Wolfe, 71, of Dutch Flat was held in Colfax Wednesday by Coroner Francis E. West.

Wolfe was killed when struck by a railroad locomotive near Gold Run late Sunday. He was walking toward Gold Run on the west side of the track and failed to hear the approach of a freight train as it rounded a curve behind him.

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 3-10

Fire Prevention Week is here. What are you going to do about it?

If you are short-sighted, you will do nothing. If you have any interest in protecting your property and your family's lives, you will use Fire Prevention Week as an occasion for taking the simple, essential measures that usually suffice to make homes and places of business safe from the most common and dangerous fire hazards.

Fire Prevention Week is not designed to sell anything. It is designed to serve—to conserve—to protect. During the Week insurance companies, civic bodies, fire experts and public officials will use radio, newspapers, display and printed literature in an effort to make you think and to make you act.

In the average home grave hazards exist of which the owner knows nothing. Ignorance, as well as carelessness, is a prolific source of destructive fire.

The simplest and most easily corrected causes are responsible for the great bulk of fires in dwellings. A slight fault in a heating plant may devastate a home. Accumulations of papers, clothes, furniture and other odds and ends require only a spark to burst into flame. Improperly stored fluids, such as gasoline, benzine and kerosene are a constant menace. Amateur repairs of electric appliances and light cords cause millions of dollars' loss annually. Paint and oil soaked rags are often the cause of spontaneous combustion. An improperly protected hot electric iron, or cigarette ashes invite fires.

It costs you nothing to eliminate these hazards, and it takes little time. That small effort may save you hundreds of dollars—and infinitely more important, save a life.

Fire Prevention Week was inaugurated to serve you. Make the most of it by cooperating with your fire department.

CITIZEN OF CALIFORNIA

Bert B. Meek, sterling citizen of California, is dead. Engineer, rancher, olive grower, highway builder, banker and publisher—brilliantly-gifted, versatile and tireless—Bert Meek rendered California conspicuous public service, both in private life and government office.

A native of southern California, adopted by northern California, he loved all California—and served it conscientiously and well. It is tragic that his career was cut short. But California will be better for years to come because he lived here.

WESTWARD, HO!

"If you were to move, to which section of the country would you wish to go?" "Which section would you avoid?"

Fortune magazine, in its quarterly survey, asked these questions of Americans in the east, the south, New England, the middle states, the Rocky Mountain states, the southwest and the Pacific Coast and this week published the illuminating results.

The Pacific Coast is first on the list in answer to question number one. It is last on the list in answer to number two.

"If the population of the United States gets what it wants," comments Fortune, "there will be a major trend toward the Pacific Coast." And, as every Californian knows, the Pacific Coast, to practically every American, means just one thing—California.

The Spirit of California Press Is Unselfish Public Service

GOVERNOR MERRIAM'S PROCLAMATION

"The newspapers have been referred to as the backbone of American freedom. For a century and a half the publishers of our newspapers have been the guardians of the freedom of opinion of our people, the right of which is guaranteed to them under the first amendment to the constitution of the United States. The responsibilities of expressing public opinion in the local community, state and nation, have been borne with honor by the newspaper publishers. California may well regard with pride the inspiration and leadership which has been her heritage from her newspaper editors, dating back to the gold rush days of '49."

"As gatherers, disseminators and interpreters of the news of rural areas and cities, the state and nation, our newspapers wield a formidable and significant influence upon public opinion."

"In recognition of the faithful performance of their duty to the public they serve now, therefore, I, Frank F. Merriam, governor of California, do hereby proclaim the period beginning with the 4th day of October, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven as 'Newspaper Week' within the limits of this commonwealth and urge all of our people to give consideration to the unswerving service given California by her newspapers."

Politically Speaking

By Jack Welter
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.—(UP)—The California senate lost its most colorful figure with the death of Senator Karl P. Keough of Inyo county.

His was a comparatively brief stay in the political spotlight of the California legislature, but there is little doubt he will be remembered when others with longer service have been forgotten.

Gifted with homespun, whimsical humor of a type rarely found in men in public office, Keough was a native son, born in the same Owens Valley region he represented in the senate. He was elected Inyo and Mono county's representative in 1934 and served through the 51st and 52nd sessions.

Known as "Chief" because of his claims that he was part Indian and his close interest in Indian affairs, Keough's humor often lightened dull sessions in the austere upper house.

He was seldom disturbed by rules of parliamentary procedure. Arising on the senate floor, he would gesture to the chair and remark:

"I'd like to say a few words, m' boy, when my partner over there from north of the Tehachapi sits down."

"Are you fellows trying to trim the 'cow counties' again?" he would inquire when senators from populous centers urged support of a bill.

One of Keough's pet projects was a measure to legalize sale of liquor to Indians.

It was his contention that "you might as well let them buy it as to force the mto steal it." He also defended his attitude of the controversial question on the ground that "Lincoln freed the slaves; I want to do a little something for the Indians."

Refusal of Norman W. Church, southern California horseman, to call off the dogs in the current maelstrom engulfing the state racing board, is causing the administration some embarrassment and considerable high blood pressure.

When Gov. Frank F. Merriam dismissed favoritism charges filed against Carleton F. Burke by various southern citizens, including Church, the matter apparently was cleared

MRS. HARDY CLARK BECOMES BRIDE OF ZEPHYR COVE MAN

TAHOE CITY, Oct. 7.—Tahoe residents were treated to two rare surprises last week in the form of unexpected marriages.

The first was that of Carl Bechdolt, Jr., to Miss Elsie Bell Brougher and the second was that of Mrs. Hardy Clark of San Francisco, socialite daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Clark of San Francisco and New York who chose Friday, October 1 as the date of her marriage to Frank H. Slater of Zephyr Cove.

Announcing their intention to only a few close friends and relatives, the party motored to Reno where the ceremony was performed in the chambers of Judge Thomas Moran. Miss Ann Park and Mrs. Ernest Crawford of Tahoe City, sister of the bridegroom, were among the witnesses.

Mrs. Slater has long been active in Junior League, Boy Scouts and other philanthropic enterprises on the peninsula and is a recognized leader in select social circles in the bay region. Her San Mateo home has been leased to Mrs. Parker Toms for the past eight months.

Mr. Slater is proprietor of a fashionable riding academy and stables at Zephyr Cove with winter headquarters on his Reno ranch.

MAWDSLEYS LEAVE LAKE TO RESIDE AT MARYSVILLE

TAHOE CITY, Oct. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mawdsley and son Rex, residents of Tahoe for more than four years, on Friday moved away from their home near the machine shops in town to Marysville where Mawdsley has secured a position with the Neon Sign company. Their son Rex was heartbroken when he was unable to arrange transportation for his menagerie of pets. There were two dogs, a large yellow cat with a family of kittens. He compromised by taking one dog and the cat, leaving the others with neighbors. His xylophone will be sorely missed in the local school orchestra. The family's many friends wish them success in the new venture.

Joyful Mornings

A LOVED hymn which has sustained and inspired many begins with the lines:
 "Still, still with Thee when purple morning breaketh,
 When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee,
 Fairer than morning, lovelier than the daylight,
 Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with Thee."

These words emphasize the joy and light which illumine thought as one realizes the presence of God.

There may be those who do not look forward to the morning awakening, because to them it seems but the beginning of another day of care or worry or fear. And there are others who have yielded to the habit of allowing some time to elapse before arousing themselves to being thoroughly awake and responsive to good for the new day. But all may awaken each morning with joy and energy, fresh as the birds, when it is realized that, even though sleep has intervened between the experiences of one day and those yet to come in another, we are still with God, still loved, guided, supported, protected by the adorable Father of all.

Even though there may have been in the human experiences of yesterday evidences other than those of the peace and joy which come with the realization of God's presence, yet the dawn ushers in a new day, in which a discordant past need have no part. Each may awaken quickly, if he will immediately turn to God, and much may be accomplished if joyous, spiritual thinking is begun early. Prompt, right mental activity helps to make the day harmonious and fruitful, and to overcome any sense of discord resulting from whatever in the previous day may have been unworthy and regrettable.

Many have learned to engage at once, upon awakening each morning, in quiet prayer and contemplation of God's glory and God's gifts to His children—joy and peace and health.

It is not necessary to dwell in surroundings entirely desirable to human sense, in order to experience joyful mornings. No matter where one's home may be located, one may always realize God's power to dispel the night dreams that may have come with the darkness, or the waking dreams of a not too happy past or present experience.

Suppose one feels in the morning that the night has not been restful, one may not be glad that the dawn has come and another day has arrived. Then, if that one will but turn his thoughts from self to meditate on God and His creation, he will realize that the new day promises all the possibilities of joyous, new experiences. And if one persists in thinking of God first each morning, the habit of undue self-contemplation will surely disappear.

With practical application, Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, refers to the experience of sleeplessness on page 385 of Science and Health as follows: "You say that you have not slept well or have over-eaten. You are a law unto yourself." If one who has not slept well will refuse to voice or retain in thought that experience, and will persistently remember that God is always with His children, he will learn to anticipate only joy in the new day, knowing that also, by such true thinking, the fear, and therefore the experience of other wakeful nights will be averted.

When we comply with the demand to think truly before we go to sleep, we shall not awaken thinking untruly or unhappily.

Farther on in the hymn quoted from above are found the words:

"So shall it ever be in the bright morning,
 When hearts awaking see the shadows flee."

The true awakening is the heart's awakening to the truth about God and man, by which one realizes health, harmony, and peace. This spiritual awakening is possible.

Each one may voice his grateful praise in the words of the Psalmist (Psalm 139:17, 18): "How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee."—The Christian Science Monitor.

Fleeing From Destruction and Disease in Shanghai

Caught in the fire of both Chinese and Japanese troops and bombers, these hapless native residents of Shanghai trudge out of the city toward the interior in the hope of finding a haven of safety. Unable to leave by train because of Japanese bombing refugee carriers, the Chinese civilians, their few remaining possessions carried in sacks over their shoulders, are shown as they leave behind them a city first shattered by bombs and now gripped by a cholera epidemic.

Preparing for China War Service

Under secret orders, the three heavy cruisers shown above, newest and most powerful of the American fleet, are reported feverishly loading supplies and military stores in San Diego harbor in anticipation of being sent to reinforce the Asiatic fleet in the Orient. The threatened blockade of the China Coast and the Japanese warning that all foreign ships must clear the Whangpoo River despite the fact that all Americans have not yet been evacuated from Shanghai has created an impending crisis in which these three cruisers may play an important role in blockade running. From top to bottom they are flag-ship San Francisco, the Quincy and the Tuscaloosa.

STATE BOARD TO ENFORCE PROVISIONS OF ACT ON SALES TAX IN CALIFORNIA

Strict enforcement of Ruling No. 73 which would require California retailers to indicate to customers the amount of sales tax reimbursement collected on each transaction and, in effect, result in the passing on of the tax to the consumer, was promised today by members of the state board of equalization at a meeting with representatives of various retail groups.

The first step in the enforcement of the provision was taken when the board cited Ralph's Grocery company in Los Angeles, to show cause why its retailer's permit should not be revoked for violation of section 8 of the sales tax act and ruling 73. Section 8 specifically forbids "any retailer to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer, directly or indirectly, that the tax or any part thereof imposed by this act will be assumed or absorbed by the retailer."

Under Ruling 73, retailers are given the alternative of either posting a notice indicating that the 3 per cent sales tax will be added to all posted or advertised prices of goods subject to the tax or the amount of the sales tax reimbursement may be stated separately on all price tags, menus, invoices, etc.

which should be brought to light. We hope to create a permanent exhibit which will save for posterity some of the rapidly disappearing relics that typified the early-day life of the Golden Empire.

Communications should be addressed to the Centennial Committee, at the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce.

This Week At The State Capitol

By JOHN ABBOTT

United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.— (UP)—Appointments by Governor Merriam and a decision of the third district appellate court reversing the conviction of eight defendants in a criminal syndicalism trial headlined the week's news at the state capitol.

Merriam, ending the widespread speculation concerning his choice for a successor to the late Justice Ira Thompson of the state Supreme court named Presiding Justice Frederick W. Houser of the second district appellate court of Los Angeles to the position.

The governor admitted he had considered selection of his close friend, state Senator W. P. Rich of Marysville, also state attorney general U. S. Webb, but Rich was declared ineligible because of his senatorship and Webb declared he was a candidate for reelection to the attorney generalship.

On another front Henry Potter Russell of Monterey and Samuel M. Haskins of Los Angeles were named to the state racing commission. Chairman Carleton Burke of Los Angeles remained chairman completing reorganization of the racing body but by no means ending administration worries over the horse racing situation.

Louis Drapeau, state building and loan commissioner, received an appointment to the superior bench in Ventura county.

The list of positions filled left speculators in for a session of thumb twiddling until announcements are made regarding nominations to the fish and game and the state athletic commission.

The legislature enlarged both bodies to membership of five, adding two jobs in each case. The governor's two secretaries hold temporary appointments to the athletic commission, but nothing has been said concerning the fish and game commission.

A host of names have been presented, backed by various conservation groups.

The appellate's decision liberating the defendants in the syndicalism case, most observers agreed, was made mandatory by an inescapable disparity in the two verdicts by the trial jury.

The appellate court held a verdict of guilty on one indictment was inconsistent with the acquittal of the same defendants on the same charges in a second indictment.

Liberals viewed the decision as a signal victory for minorities; opponents cited the court's opinion that a substantial degree of evidence pointed to guilt of the defendants, privately charged the jury with stupidity.

State officials, meeting at a regular council session with the governor, mapped a tentative program for amplification of the state's drive on venereal disease by carrying an educational campaign to children of school age.

Retail merchants may continue to absorb the three per cent sales tax but are forbidden to advertise the practice, the state board of equalization ruled.

Officials admitted that if a merchant failed to post the amount of the

OPTIMISTIC REPORTS PRESENTED DURING STATE MEETINGS

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.— (UP)—Optimistic reports to the governor's monthly council meeting reflected general improvement of business conditions throughout the state.

Outstanding facts disclosed by the various department heads included:

Sales of new passenger cars 10 per cent above the 1936 August level.

Seasonal increase in department store sales volume showing well over normal.

Factory employment, at the height of the canning season last month was the greatest ever recorded in California; and another encouraging factor in this direction was a crop survey indicating one of the heaviest general crops of recent years.

The state treasury deficit was trimmed to $4,911,276, as tax revenues exceeded expenditures by $20,000,000 during the first two months of the new fiscal year which began July 1.

SALE OF FISH, GAME LICENSES SET NEW RECORD THIS YEAR

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.— (UP)—Sales of hunting and angling licenses in California continue to increase, according to figures released by H. R. Dunbar, chief of the bureau of licenses, division of fish and game.

"July and August, the first two months of the current fiscal year, brought hunting license revenues of $249,979. In the same period last year hunting license revenues amounted to $205,297.50, or $44,681.50 less than those of the present season," Dunbar said.

During the same period, revenue from angling licenses increased from $393,653.50 for the first two months of the last fiscal year to $469,213.50 for the first two months of this year.

NEVADA COUNTY'S 218 PENSIONERS ARE GIVEN $6,777

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.— (UP)—California's old age pension payments during August amounted to $2,578,961.87, or an average of $31.55 to each of the 81,781 persons receiving old age assistance, Florence L. Turner, director of the department of social welfare, reported.

Nevada county, with 218 persons on the pension rolls, disbursed a total of $6,777 for an average of $31.09 per pensioner.

The state average for August showed a slight increase over that of the preceding month which was reported as $31.46 tax on various items, under procedure recently required by a board ruling, a court test might be necessary.

A merchant who fails to post the levy to determine whether such action would not constitute an indirect violation of the law.

Notice might thereby be advertising he was absorbing the tax, officials said.

Originally designed to eliminate "sharp practices" between retailer and the board's adjustment of the sales tax law under legislative authority caused comment that "this will be one more headache."

The Sacramento grand jury indicted five Folsom convicts for the murder of Warden Clarence A. Larkin during the "Bloody Sunday" rioting. District Attorney Otis D. Babcock, who already has secured similar indictments against the five for the murder of Guard Harry E. Martin, killed in the same fighting, predicted the felons would be brought to trial in January, and eventually would face execution in the lethal gas chamber at San Quentin.

WOMAN BREAKS IN JAIL IN EFFORT TO FREE HER SPOUSE

ROSEVILLE, Oct. 6.— (UP)—Mary K. Powell, local resident, was not so successful in a well-meant effort to rescue her husband from jail. In fact she landed there herself.

Mrs. Powell was attempting to secure her husband's release when she broke two panes of glass in the city hall, resulting in her arrest on a drunk charge.

Powell, in jail on a similar count, appeared in justice court and paid a $50 fine. Mrs. Powell settled for the damages.

LABOR VIOLATIONS IN STATE INCREASE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.— (UP)—Complaints of labor law violations received by the state division of labor statistics during August showed an increase of 184 over the corresponding month of 1936, compilations by the bureau revealed.

Most of the complaints referred to violations of wage laws. Of the 2317 cases handled 2049 were of this classification.

The division reported a total of $47,078.41 in wage claims was collected during the month against $41,716.40 in August, 1936. Wage claims settled totaled 1672, compared with 983 in the like month a year ago.

beg the case," Merriam subsequently suggested Church should get a new attorney. His mounting displeasure was unmistakable.

Well-informed sources believed dismissal of the charges against Burke and former Commissioner William P. Roth evidenced a compromise between warring factions. On this basis, eventual approval of a second southern California race track appears certain.

It appeared the compromise may have been engineered by administration friends, anxious to quiet a situation which couldn't do other than reflect on the incumbent regime. Regardless of its outcome, such an investigation would carry a suggestion of impropriety. And there are some who insist it would result in more than that.

Senator Wheeler, for example, shelling Merriam from San Francisco, reiterated his "raw deal" charge, adding:

"The governor refused and still refuses to hear charges filed by Mr. Church. That may be good politics, but I don't believe it."

Merriam angrily denied politics entering the picture.

But whether politics figures in the present horse racing situation, horse racing undoubtedly will figure in politics when the Democrats open up with the 1938 siege guns.

On the Democratic side, there is growing impression that Senator William Gibbs McAdoo's withdrawal from the law firm of McAdoo, Neblett and Warner tagged San Francisco's George Creel as head man of the Democratic state organization, as represented by McAdoo forces.

Neblett, heretofore major domo in the south, and Creel, No. 1 man in the north haven't hit it off too well for some time past. Their chilled relationships, however, became quite apparent in the 1934 primary when Neblett's uninspired and delayed

RICE HARVEST IN BUTTE COUNTY IS UNDER WAY

OROVILLE, Oct. 6.— (UP)—The annual rice harvest in Butte county, which leads the state in rice production, is underway.

More than 600 men are at work in the fields, county authorities reported. The harvest will last approximately 40 days.

Unless rains retard the work, every outfit in the district will be working at top speed within a week, farm leaders predicted.

support weakened Creel's cause in the south.

McAdoo recently offered to play a tennis match to demonstrate his physical fitness for the office despite his 74 years, meantime had nothing to say about the complicated situation.

He is interested primarily in the national aspects of the forthcoming campaign, befitting his position as senator and his probable aspirations for reelection.
